AUCTION GUIDELINES

Silent Auction

First Book-Charlotte (FBC) proudly presents our silent auction to you. At the time of check-in you will be assigned a bidder number. Your bidder number and amount on the bid form constitutes a contract to buy.

The bid form lists the bid amounts in dollar increments. The bidder simply writes their bid amount and bidder number clearly beside the amount desired. The winner will be the highest bid amount at the conclusion of the Silent Auction. If the winning bidders name or number is illegible, the bid becomes void and the item is awarded to the next highest bidder.

The Silent Auction will close and at that predetermined time and all bid sheets will be collected from the tables.

Payments by the successful bidder must be made in full at the Auction Check Out.

Live Auction

The auctioneer will state the opening bid
To enter a bid, raise your hand. The auctioneer will acknowledge your bid and bid number.

The auctioneer retains the right to announce conditions of sale for any item. The auctioneer shall be the sole and final arbiter of any dispute.

The winning bidders name and amount will be recorded. Winning bidders must pay in full at check-out and take the item home the night of the auction.

Check-Out Procedures

Silent Auction winners will be posted at the auction display tables or at the Check-Out Desk.

At Check-Out you will receive a receipt for all items purchased and you will be asked to review it for accuracy.

Payment must be made in full by cash, check, VISA, MC, AMEX or Discover. All sales are final. Buyers waive any claim for liability.

FBC and the Auction Committee makes no express or implied warranties or representations of any kind or nature with respect to the property or services, and in no event shall it be responsible for the accuracy of descriptions, genuineness, authenticity, or condition of the property or service. By his or her purchase, the buyer waives any claim for liability against FBC or the donor of the property or services, and neither FBC nor the donor is responsible for any personal injuries or damages to property that may result from the utilization of property or services sold. Lost certificates are not replaceable.

Purchasers must accept that certain items are subject to availability. Arrangements must be made between the purchaser and donor.

The amount of the purchase over fair market value (FMV) is tax deductible. Contact your tax professional regarding how these guidelines may apply to your situation.
